Last Order Date

Orders will be accepted for the discontinued product through January 31, 2020, or while supplies last.

Replacement Product:

Direct replacement product can be found in the new E-100BTX-FX-06 product family as listed above. For those products where a direct replacement is not available, we suggest using the new SFP-based version, E-100BTX-FX-06(SFP), along with an appropriate SFP module to meet your fiber type and transmission distance requirements.

Closing

We look forward to new opportunities to support your networking requirements with our comprehensive product line. Should you have any questions, please contact your sales representative.

Sincerely,
Transition Networks Management Team
